

The White Horse Theatre – THE CONTENT

The White Horse Theatre! 14th June 2019. Today we saw the show of 'White Horse theatre'. Now I want to talk about my opinion.

At first, I have to say that I really liked the show because it showed that you don't need much to tell a great story everybody can understand. Furthermore, I really loved that they went through the audience.

Enough to 'how they played' let's go over to the main part. THE CONTENT ! In my opinion this is the most difficult thing for the actors. They have to play their roles very realistically to deliver the real meaning of the situations. I think they managed this perfectly. Everybody started thinking, but no one was scared. I also really liked the topics, they presented. Cyber bullying is for me the worst way to bully someone. The pictures stay on the internet forever. There only has to be one guy who saved a picture, and he can upload it again and again, so this vicious circle will never stop. And we saw how far this can go. I don't understand why people are bullying other people. Why couldn't we all choose our way? I agree, I neither like everyone, but I stay apart from them and avoid awkward situations. Why couldn't we accept everyone? I think the actors showed clearly that we have to work on ourselves. So why shouldn't girls play football and why should we all have blond hair, weigh 55 kg and be 1,70 tall. (Kylie) It's a big problem in our society.

I think everyone realized these two problems. But for me there was still a third problem. SEX. Well, at first I thought that we are a little too young to hear so much about it, but now I can say that it was a great idea. We are the future and if nobody shows us how to love somebody we will never learn it. Again I think that the actors managed it perfectly, because it's right, no one wants real feelings anymore. Everyone wants sex, sex, sex but without feelings. Why is everybody so wrong-thinking about feelings? Aren't they good at all? Why does everybody want to hide their feelings? For me it's the most beautiful thing in life to show them. (Of course to the person I love) I also think that sex with the person you really love is much better, than with a person you haven't got feelings for.

But on the other hand you have to see that it's difficult to find someone who honestly loves you and especially replies your feelings. For example Amanda, she had feelings for Stuart, but he didn't reciprocate her love. That hurts pretty much but it's not forever and sometimes she will find someone who feels the same. But for someone who doesn't want to wait for 'the one guy' there is always a way to get love nowadays, even if it's fake love. The truth is that too much love is fake and maybe we only forgot how to love someone. This was my strongest impression in the show.

Another problem the actors showed was Internet love. I think that Stuart reacted very well, because he understood that it was fake love in most cases. Some messages and pics didn't show the real personality. And I'm happy that Stuart didn't want to have sex without feelings like it's offered in the messages.

What I learned from the show is that real love became rare. In my opinion this is a pity, because loving someone is such a great feeling.

All in all I think this was the best show I have ever seen. For me it was much more than just a show it wasn't only a story, it showed the reality. I thought about it and I think this is what they wanted to achieve.
